If there is the smallest chance of advantage accruing from the proposed treaty, let us ratify it without the least possible delay."

General Convention in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, November 25.—The Young Men's Christian Association Convention met at nine o'clock this morning. The first regular question was, "what is the work of Young Men's Christian Conventions?" which was introduced by J. B. Merwin, and subsequently discussed briefly by the Convention. The next question was the right of election between the churches and Young Men's Christian Association, which was spoken to by A. Connel, of St. Louis. Mr. Walters, of Indiana, said he believed the sole object of these associations should be to work for Christ. Whenever young men undertook anything else, anything that was unchristian, they were mistaken. The sole object of the association was to make themselves like Christ, not Christ like them or according to denomination.

Rev. A. B. Bott, of Cleveland, said it had been represented to him that pastors of churches regarded Christian Associations as rendering the young men useless for their purpose. His observations led him to believe that such a conclusion was incorrect.

The Rev. Morton offered the following resolution as embodying the views of the Convention on the foregoing subject, which was accepted:

Resolved, That no other agency can supercede the christian church or do its work, the work God has laid on it, and for which He has established it, to preserve and disseminate truth, to convert and evangelize and save the world. [illegible]

The next question was "the right work of the Christian Association," was introduced by J. B. Sherwin, of St. Louis, who said he thanked God they had learned the benefit of organization, and were taking hold of this matter as they did material things. If they wished to build a railroad, individual and incorporation and organization were required. One man could not accomplish it, nor any number of men without united effort. This was so much as far as organization and co-operation were concerned this had been learned by Christians. Now, how should the various denominations be employed when they engage in work? Very different, he believed, from what they were at present. He believed this Association ought to reorganize itself. He believed that it would not fulfill its mission or carry out its work without the earnest co-operation of the women of the church; and instead of calling the Association the Young Men's Christian Association, he would have them reorganized and their names changed to the "Young People's Christian Association," so that all persons who have young blood in their veins can work for Christ, and the power of evil will give way before their united efforts. The speaker wished not to depreciate in the slightest degree what has been and what is now being done, but simply to add more power to the organization. He also thought other organizations, the Unitarians, Universalists and Roman Catholics should be invited to co-operation with them. The gentleman submitted the following questions, which he thought should be propounded to every new member of the Association with a view to proper division of labor: "Will you be a teacher or a scholar in a Sunday School, or attend young people's prayer meeting, or attend the district visitation, or visit the sick, or engage in personal effort in leading the impenitent to Christ, or unite in readings or recitations and discourage the frequent and continued bothering," as he called it "of God with pages and petitions for help before the petitioners have wasted all their powers in his service?"

RICHMOND, VA.

The Chief Justice Does Away With the Iron-Clad Oath—His Charge Relative to Revenue Frauds.

RICHMOND, November 25.—Chief Justice Chase in his order to-day dispensing with the test oath for grand jurors, explained that it was an additional oath prescribed by Congress, which is to be taken unless the Court, in its discretion, direct otherwise. He added, the scruples at taking it expressed by some grand jurors known to be among those best qualified for the responsible duties of their position have induced us to inquire whether the public interests now demand that the taking of it be required, and we are satisfied that whilst the matters affirmed in it are proper in particular cases, the ends of justice will be hindered and defeated rather than promoted, and, second, by directing it not to be administered, unless some special occasion shall demand it; no such special occasion now exists, and inasmuch as the required number of Grand Jurors have not yet been sworn, we will order that those who have sworn be discharged, and the Marshal summon another Grand Jury in the usual manner.

In his charge to the Grand Jury he spoke as follows of Revenue frauds: "We admonish you, gentlemen, to exercise your utmost vigilance in the subject of frauds on the revenue, which are an evil [illegible] upon [illegible]. The revenue are frauds upon the whole body of tax payers, and no one who eats, drinks, wears, or is sheltered under any roof, however humble, now escapes taxation. Whatever the dishonest avoid paying their weather fellow-citizens must make up. Investigate thoroughly, therefore, and spare nobody, least of all those in the highest and most responsible positions. Those who are worthy will welcome inquiry, which must turn to their praise."

The sum of $2,500,000 tax was paid on tobacco manufactured and shipped from Richmond for nine months ending the 1st inst.

FLORIDA.

The Impeachment of Gov. Reed Declared Illegal by the Supreme Court.

TALLAHASSEE, November 25.—In the Supreme Court this morning, Lieutenant Governor Gleason was granted further time until 4 P. M. to show cause why a writ of quo warranto should not be issued, immediately after which the Court adjourned till to-morrow, out of respect to Gen. Waddy Thompson.

Advisory opinions were delivered this morning on the question submitted by Gov. Reed some days since. The opinions are unanimous, lengthy and well fortified by precedents and authorities, and sustain Governor Reed's position. They declare that no Legislature assembled under Gov. Reed's proclamation for a special session, and if there had been a legal assembly, that the form of impeachment was irregular and not in accordance with law or precedent, and declared that the mere passage of resolutions of impeachment do not impeach. A colored Senator who was present states that when the articles of impeachment were presented to the Senate, and a quorum of members in attendance at the session were in the Senate Chamber. Little doubt exists but a writ of quo warranto will be issued, but arguments for and against under the rule nisi will begin to-morrow and continue several days.

Manzanilla Attacked by the Insurrectionists—They are Repulsed—A Party of 400 Revolutionists Defeated.

HAVANA, November 25.—Count Valmaseda recently made a visit to Manzanilla. On his departure the insurrectionists attacked that town, but were repulsed with heavy loss by the troops, assisted by the guns of a man-of-war in the harbor. Several prominent insurrectionists have presented themselves to Captain General Lersundi, and were pardoned. All accounts received from the insurrectionary district continue favorable to the government. The crews of several men-of-war, making a total of one hundred and sixty men, have been united with the troops. This combined force left the town of Santa Cruz and surprised a party of four hundred revolutionists, who fired several rounds upon the troops and fled precipitately. The sailors then surrounded the buildings which had been occupied by the insurrectionists and captured eighty horses, a quantity of ammunition and correspondence of a public and private character, including some taken from government messengers several weeks ago.

THE SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Ohio Yearly Meeting.

[From the Friend.]

Most of the readers of The Friend have heard, we suppose, that a suit at law had been brought by those who separated from Ohio Yearly Meeting in 1854, and appointed Jonathan Binns their Clerk, against the Trustees holding the Boarding School property at Mount Pleasant, in order to obtain possession of it. The school has been kept up by Friends of Ohio Yearly Meeting since the separation; the children of those who went with the body having J. Binns for Clerk, enjoying the same provisions for education there as others.

The trial was before three judges of the Circuit Court of Ohio, and took place at Steubenville on the 8th, 9th and 10th of this month. The testimony was taken down by a stenographer, and probably may appear in print. We cannot undertake to give a full account of the trial, but the following, we believe, are the leading facts in the case, so far as we have been informed:

A proposition for a compromise of the claims of the respective parties, was made by the plaintiffs to the Boarding School Committee in 1867, and that committee brought the subject before the Yearly Meeting in that year. It was decided by the meeting, that as the property was held for the use and benefit of the Society of Friends belonging to Ohio Yearly Meeting, that yearly meeting could not recognize any claim, made by or for, a body which had separated from it, and assumed its name; and therefore no compromise could be entered into. A day or two before the trial came on, two Friends, one from Indiana and the other from Baltimore, acting on their own responsibility, had the question put to the defendants, whether proposals for a compromise would then be entertained by them, it being understood that the suit should not be withdrawn, lest it might be construed as an acknowledgment that the plaintiffs' claim was untenable. The defendants declined, stating that as the Yearly Meeting had decided there could be no compromise, they had no authority to do other than defend the rights of the Yearly Meeting. They however said that, if the suit was withdrawn, it would not affect the claims of the plaintiffs, and care would be taken to secure the benefits of the school to the children of the party bringing the suit, so far as would be within their power.

In relation to the facts and circumstances attending the separation, there was very little discrepancy in the testimony brought forward on both sides. The plaintiffs appeared to rely mainly on the positions, that the twelve representatives out of the forty-two who attended the Yearly Meeting in 1854, were justified in bringing forward the name of Jonathan Binns for clerk, because the discipline of Ohio Yearly Meeting said the representatives are to choose a clerk, and the other representatives had concluded to report to the meeting that the representatives could not agree on a name. That as soon as Jonathan Binns was nominated in the meeting, and united with by those who approved of him and the course pursued—there being many voices—he was the Clerk of the meeting, and had the right to go to the table and make a minute recording himself as Clerk; although the old Clerk was in his place, [illegible] report of the representatives, and continuing himself and the assistant in their respective stations, in accordance with the former practice and direction of the Yearly Meeting. That the time had come for disregarding that practice. That the portion of the women's meeting to which its clerk was attached, went with them. That there is but one Society of Friends, which is constituted of a number of bodies denominated Yearly Meetings, which though independent of each other in most respects, are yet individually, in some measure, subservient to the expressed will of the other parts combined. That all the Yearly Meetings, except that of Philadelphia, had recognized the meeting of which the plaintiffs are members as Ohio Yearly Meeting, had opened correspondence with it, and certificates of membership and ministers traveling, passed to and fro. That these Yearly Meetings had rejected the meeting to which the defendants belong, declined correspondence with it, and refused to grant certificates to or receive certificates from it. That therefore it was no part of the Society of Friends, and was thus debarred from right or title to the property. They also said that their ancestors, and the meetings which now owned the Yearly Meeting to which they belong, had subscribed a much larger portion of the money originally raised to purchase the farm and build the school, than the defendants or their ancestors.

The defendants took the ground, that although there is but one Society of Friends, composed of different Yearly Meetings, held together by a common faith, yet each Yearly Meeting is the Society, and continues to maintain the order and testimonies held by Friends, and to administer its own discipline, is an independent body, competent to make its own discipline, to hold its own property, and to conduct its affairs, both as relates to the government of its members and its intercourse with other co-ordinate bodies. That so long as it did not depart from the principles and practice of the Society, there is no power outside of it that can destroy its standing, or take away its rights as a Yearly Meeting of the Society of Friends. That Ohio Yearly Meeting, to which they belong, had been thus regularly constituted, and had always maintained the faith and practices of Friends; that it had never been charged with deviating from them, and therefore its standing and authority as a Yearly Meeting could not be taken away from it by other bodies which, in the organization of the Society, had no more power than itself. That from the time that the difficulties in regard to the appointment of its clerk, manifested themselves in the meeting, up to 1854—a period of nine years—the meeting had acted in accordance with settled usage in the Society in continuing the old clerk whenever the representatives reported they had not been able to agree on a new nomination. That this course had been approved and insisted on by the party represented by the plaintiffs, and that in 1854, after one of the representatives had informed the meeting that he was requested by them to report they could not agree on a name to bring forward for clerk, Benjamin Hoyle acted in conformity with the previous practice and direction of the Yearly Meeting in making a minute continuing himself in the station of clerk, and William Bates in that of assistant. That it did not require very many voices to be heard in favor of this, because it was the course settled again and again by the Yearly Meeting, and there was no alternative unless to plunge the meeting into disorder and confusion. That the practice and direction of the Yearly Meeting controlled the words of the discipline where the representatives were unable to choose a clerk, and no twelve representatives out of a body of forty-two—the number present in 1854—had a right to bring a name before the meeting which had been proposed in the meeting of the representatives and rejected by two-thirds of them. That it is the duty of the clerk at the table to gather the sense and record the judgment of the meeting; that in every Yearly Meeting the old clerk always makes the minute of the appointment of his successor before the latter takes his place, and that as two-thirds of the Yearly Meeting did not unite with the person proposed, but approved of the old clerk, and declared that J. Binns, recording himself as clerk, was a virtual separation from Ohio Yearly Meeting—which was admitted by several of his party—the whole proceeding was an act of insubordination, subversive of all order and proper organization, in which much the larger part of the Yearly Meeting declined to take any part, and no subsequent action of other Yearly Meetings could constitute the body of which J. Binns was clerk, the legitimate Yearly Meeting of Ohio. That epistolary correspondence was not obligatory on any Yearly Meeting; that its continuance or discontinuance was a matter for each meeting to decide for itself, and could not affect the existence or the rights of such a meeting. That Ohio Yearly Meeting could not be charged with ceasing to maintain the ancient faith of the Society of Friends, or not administering its own discipline, it had in no way forfeited its rights; its claim to be a regular Yearly Meeting of the Society of Friends was untouched, and as such, it was entitled to continue holding the property in dispute, which had been in its possession ever since the institution was founded, [illegible] which had received much of its [illegible] and its funds.

Of course there were other points incidentally brought into notice by the different witnesses, but we believe the above were the prominent features of the trial.

By a letter received within a few days, we are informed that when the pleading had proceeded but a little way, the judges did, they supposed that whichever party might be cast in the suit, would appeal to the Supreme Court; they therefore proposed that it should be carried by mutual consent to that tribunal without a decision being now given. To this the defendants were very unwilling to submit, inasmuch as they thought it might interfere with their carrying on the school; but upon it being stated that they should remain in undisturbed possession until the decision of the Supreme Court shall be given, they acceded to it, and the case thus rests.

We much regret that this suit was brought, because we feel that it was placing Friends in a humiliating position before the world, and we feared it would still further widen the breach that has been made, and increase the prevalence or the intensity of feelings which separate Friends one from another, and which are incompatible with a growth in grace. Both parties however were brought together under the same roof, ate at the same tables and mingled sociably in the same parlor; and while they must have felt how sad the spectacle presented it is to be hoped that any feelings of unkindness towards each other, if such existed, were lessened or removed, rather than strengthened. We understand that both plaintiffs and defendants instructed their respective lawyers, while conducting the case, to say nothing that was calculated to wound the feelings of the opposite party.

CONCERNING Thurlow Weed, a New York letter says: The many friends of Mr Weed through the country will be pained to learn that he has been much indisposed since his return home. He confines himself closely to his residence, on Twelfth street, and is compelled to forego the pleasure of receiving many of the troop of friends who flock to see and welcome him home. His family are now of the opinion that he will never be able to resume editorial duties. Mr. Weed is highly gratified at the result of the elections, and believes that General Grant will prove to be one of the most successful and popular Presidents we have ever had.

STATE NEWS.

A Mr. Lyon, of Lehman township, Pike county, was recently shot by his wife, with whom he had some words. Mr. Lyon was in bed, asleep, when this act of conjugal affection was performed. Both of his eyes were shot out, and at last accounts he was in a hopeless condition.

True bills have been found by the grand jury of the United States District Court at Philadelphia, upon the indictment of G. W. Alexander, late Assessor of Internal Revenue for the Berks District, for receiving a bribe and conspiracy to defraud the government.

The oldest tannery, it is said, in the United States, is located at Bethlehem, in Pennsylvania. It was built by the Moravians in 1643, and enlarged by them in 1761. Eleven vats, sunk at that time, are still in use, though they have been repaired on several occasions.

MONONGAHELA MARKS—Five feet four. ALLEGHENY—Six feet ten; falling. OIL CITY—Two feet four; falling.

THE marks on the Monongahela pier indicated five feet four inches and falling slowly. The weather was very mild for the season. The departures include the New York, for Nashville; Silver Cloud, for St. Louis, and Kenton, for Portsmouth.

THE towboats Mary Alice and A. J. Baker passed Cairo on their way to New Orleans on Saturday.

THE steamers Savannah, Maggie Hays and Armenia were advertised to leave St. Louis for this port on Monday and Tuesday.

A NEW steamer, the Lucy, was launched at Knoxville Saturday, and will, when completed, ply between Chattanooga and Knoxville.

THE fine passenger steamer, Kate Putnam, Captain George W. Reed, is the regular St. Louis packet for Saturday, and will positively leave as announced.

THE Parkersburg packet for this day is the steamer Bayard, Captain A. S. Shepherd. This boat is A No. 1 in every respect—has speed, accommodations and attentive officers.

THE light draught packet Allena May, Capt. Flanniken, leaves for Brownsville and Geneva at 4 P. M. This boat goes through without reshipping.

ST. LOUIS, November 23.—A collision occurred on the river to-day, between the steamer City of Cairo and the ferry-boat America, resulting in considerable damage to the latter.

THE packet Silver Cloud left last evening with a fair trip. Passengers and shippers can depend on this line sending out two boats per week, leaving on Wednesdays and Saturdays. Punctuality its motto to win.

THE first-class freight boat, R. C. Gray, Capt. Whitaker, is announced for Cairo, Memphis and New Orleans. Shippers will please bear this in mind. Our friend Young will attend to any business that may be offered.

ST. LOUIS.

Pittsburgh and St. Louis Packet Line.

BOATS LEAVE EVERY WEDNESDAY and SATURDAY of each week, and oftener if throng of business requires. The Line is to be under the direction and control of Captains John L. Rhodes, Wm. Dean, Emmitt McClure and James Rees. The object is, to obtain regularity of time in departing, together with a uniform tariff of rates on freight, from Pittsburgh to St. Louis and all intermediate points. The following Captains and their boats have agreed to enter into and compose said line:

Steamer Leonidas	Capt. Edward Evans.
Steamer Silver Cloud No. 2	Capt. J. B. Conway.
Steamer Kate Putnam	Capt. Geo. W. Reed.
Steamer Wananita	Capt. Thos. Shuman.
Steamer Glendale	Capt. John M. Hare.

Steamer Bellevernon	Capt. John I. Darrah.
Steamer Maggie Hays	Capt. R. C. Martin.
Steamer Armenia	Capt. A. C. McCallum.
Steamer Messenger	Capt. Jesse Dean.

It is understood that the day of departure shall be strictly obeyed on the part of said boats, and the hour not later than sundown. And that the time of arrival at all points or landings between Pittsburgh and St. Louis shall be settled upon as will best serve the patrons of the line, to give dispatch to business and regularity, which we think will be of great advantage to our business men and the general travel on our rivers. Besides save much expense to our boats, while loading under the line regulations in three days instead of six or eight, as under the old rule of loading three or four boats at one time. If our object should be properly appreciated, we will endeavor to make the line work to the advantage of all concerned. Through receipts will be given to all points where connections can be made with other good lines. We most earnestly solicit the assistance of our business community.

Very truly yours,

JOHN L. RHODES,

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of its Large Capital, Low Rates of Premium and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium, being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-Holders.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as the INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a Life Insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an annual income equal to ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. In the latter, the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Company.

Circulars, Pamphlets and full particulars given on application to the Branch Office of the Company in Philadelphia, or to its General Agents.

LOCAL AGENTS ARE WANTED in every City and Town; and applications from competent parties for such agencies, with suitable indorsement, should be addressed TO THE COMPANY'S GENERAL AGENTS ONLY, in their respective districts.

EXCELLENT SECURITY

THE FIRST MORTGAGE,

Thirty-Year, Six Per Cent.

GOLD BONDS

OF THE

Central Pacific

RAILROAD COMPANY.

These Bonds are the duly authorized and accredited obligations of one of the most responsible Corporations of the American Continent, and are secured by an absolute first lien upon the valuable grants, franchises, railroad equipment, business, etc., of the best portion of the Great National Pacific Railroad Line,

Extending eastwardly from the navigable waters of the Pacific Coast to the lines now rapidly building from the Eastern States.

They bear six per cent. interest per annum, in gold, and BOTH PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST ARE EXPRESSLY MADE "PAYABLE IN UNITED STATES GOLD COIN."

The semi-annual Coupons are payable, July 1st and January 1st, in New York City.

The purchaser is charged the accrued interest from the date of the last paid Coupon, AT THE CURRENCY RATE ONLY.

This issue of Bonds constitutes one of the Largest and most popular Corporate Loans of the country, and therefore will be constantly dealt in.

The greater portion of the Loan is now in the hands of steady investors; and it is probable that before many months, when the Road is completed and the Loan closed, THE BONDS WILL BE EAGERLY SOUGHT FOR AT THE HIGHEST RATES.

They are issued ONLY AS THE WORK PROGRESSES, and to the same extent only as the U. S. Subsidy Bonds granted by the Government to the Pacific Railroad Companies.

Nearly FIVE HUNDRED MILES of the road are now built, and the grading is well advanced on two hundred and fifty miles additional.

THE THROUGH LINE ACROSS THE CONTINENT will be completed by the middle of next year, when the Overland travel will be very large.

The local business alone, upon the completed portion, is so heavy, and so advantageous, that the gross earnings average more than a Quarter of a Million in Gold per month, of which 35 per cent. only is required for operating expenses.

The net profit upon the Company's business on the completed portion, is about double the amount of annual interest liabilities to be assumed thereupon, and will yield A SURPLUS OF NEARLY A MILLION IN GOLD after expenses and interest are paid—even if the through connection were not made.

The last lands, the richest mines, together with the largest settlement and nearest markets, lie along this portion of the Pacific Railroad, and the future development of business thereon will be proportionately great.

From these considerations it is submitted that the

CENTRAL PACIFIC RAILROAD BONDS,

Secured by a First Mortgage on so productive a property are among the most promising and reliable securities now offered. No better Bonds can be made.

A portion of the remainder of this Loan is now offered to investors at 103 PER CENT., AND ACCRUED INTEREST, IN CURRENCY.

The Bonds are of $1,000 each.

The Company reserve the right to advance the price at any time, but all orders actually in transitu at the time of any such advance will be filled at present price. At this time they more than pay eight per cent. upon the investment, and have, from National and State laws, guarantees peculiar to themselves.

We receive all classes of Government Bonds, at their full market rates, in exchange for the Central Pacific Railroad Bonds, thus enabling the holders to realize from 5 TO 10 PER CENT. PROFIT and keep the principal of their investments equally secure.

Orders and Inquiries will receive prompt attention. Information, Descriptive Pamphlets, &c., giving a full account of the Organization, Progress, Business and Prospects of the Enterprise, furnished on application. Bonds sent by return Express at our cost.

SILVER MINES.

Parties in Colorado have placed in my hands, for sale,

1,000 FEET ON THE FAMOUS "APACHE" SILVER LODE,

Situated within one mile of Georgetown. I have carefully examined this property, and am confident it is one of the best in Colorado. Numerous assays of the Ore have been made, the lowest one being $180 (coin value) per ton. The mine can be worked with as great facility as any in that region, and with a small expenditure to put it in proper shape can be made to yield enormous profits. The owners do not put a fictitious value on their property, but fix a low price that will enable them from the proceeds of this sale to work the 2,000 feet they will still retain.

Books for the subscription of stock will be left with JOHN D. BAILEY & BRO., 115 Fourth avenue, and B. M'LAIN & CO., corner Fourth avenue and Smithfield streets, where specimens of the Ore can be seen and full information obtained.

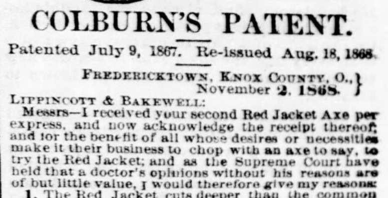
RED JACKET

AXES,



COLBURN'S PATENT.

Patented July 9, 1867. Re-issued Aug. 18, 1868.

FREDERICKTOWN, KNOX COUNTY, O., November 2, 1868.

LIPPINCOTT & BAKEWELL:

Messrs—I received your second Red Jacket Axe per express, and now acknowledge the receipt thereof; and for the benefit of all whose desires or necessities make it their business to chop with an axe to say, to try the Red Jacket; and as the Supreme Court have held that a doctor's opinions without his reasons are of but little value, I would therefore give my reasons: 1. The Red Jacket cuts deeper than the common bit. 2. It being round on the cut it does not stick in the wood. 3. Every chopper with the common Axe must discover that there is as much labor and strength expended in taking the Axe out of the cut as there is in making the blow. 4. This with the Red Jacket is all avoided, and from one-third to one-half the labor is saved in cutting the same quantity. 5. By putting in the same labor that is necessary with a common Axe, you can easily make at least thirty-three per cent. more wood in same time.

You are safe in letting any honest man try your Red Jacket on these tests, and if it fails refund him his money.

Respectfully yours,
HARRY BALDWIN.
